Unparalleled Solitude and Isolation.

Solo.

The Solo booth by Klassworks is a sanctuary for focus and privacy. Crafted with superior materials and build quality, the fully enclosed Solo booth is designed for individuals seeking a quiet retreat for private conversations, or simply a space to concentrate in today's busy work environments.

Acoustic Foam Insulation

Strategically placed for optimal soundproofing and privacy

Ventilation System

Electronically controlled for consistent air flow, maintaining comfort and air quality

Lighting Controls

Integrated system to adjust brightness levels for focused work sessions

Integrated shelf

Optional Air Conditioning

Customisable climate control to ensure a comfortable interior environment

High-Quality Materials

Premium build for enhanced durability and a superior aesthetic appeal

Engineered for Solitude

Solo provides an insulated, acoustic haven for users needing to escape the office buzz. It's the perfect setting for confidential discussions or focused work, with acoustic foam lining ensuring privacy and tranquillity.

Electronically Enhanced Environment

With Solo, comfort is customisable. The booth features electronic control over ventilation and lighting, with the option for air conditioning, creating an optimal environment tailored to individual preferences.

A Commitment to Excellence

Solo stands apart in its attention to detail and use of high-quality materials. The superior build guarantees a durable and sustainable investment in workplace well-being. Solo has a B-class speech level reduction of 28dB – ISO 23351-1 rating for office pods. Acoustic booths in a B-class reduce the noise coming in from an office environment substantially without users having a complete sense of isolation from the world outside of them. Solo provides private spaces for confidential conversations and meetings, guaranteed through the products we use.
